"The computer training I received was instrumental ...made me fit the profile of what my company needed. If you're looking for work, take the career interest survey because people ... have hidden talents." – Melissa

PLAN FOR THE FUTURE

"I used the resource library and taught myself how to type using a computer tutorial program. I got help with creating a resume, identifying jobs and practiced interviewing." – William

ENJOY SUCCESS

"I had been looking for a job because I knew a lay-off was coming. People can really have a hard time preparing a resume, especially if they have worked one place for a long time. I was able to translate my experience to other jobs, and I now have a position as a sales operation representative." – Judy
